ALTERNATIVE WAYS TO CONSTITUTE AN ASA CLUB

(i) Community Amateur Sports Club (“C.A.S.C.”)

Clubs considering registering as a C.A.S.C. may find the following resources useful:

The CCPR have put together a website for C.A.S.C.s: <http://www.cascinfo.co.uk/>

In particular there is a useful document on the website which compares C.A.S.C. and charitable status: <http://www.cascinfo.co.uk/applyingforcasc/cascvcharity.htm>)

(ii) Charitable Status

Clubs considering charitable status may find the following resources useful:

The Charity Commission is the regulator for charities in England and Wales. They have an excellent website: <http://www.charity-commission.gov.uk/>

In either event, Clubs wishing to constitute itself as a CASC or charity should liaise with the ASA, so as to ensure its constitution is compliant with ASA requirements for affiliation.
